SEPTEMBER 2021

Welcome from Police and Crime Commissioner, Festus Akinbusoye

100-day report and Police and Crime Plan

Hopefully you've all seen a copy of my 100-day report and Police and Crime Plan. The 100-day report details the progress that my office has delivered against the pledges and priorities set out in the manifesto and I couldn't have done this without collaborative work with partners and colleagues, so once again a huge thank you to all of you. Read a copy of the 100-day report here.

The Police and Crime Plan is the strategic vision for the future and I am proud to say this is very much a prevention led plan with specific measures in place for each of the seven priorities. More here.

Summer of Fun and Focus

The Summer of Fun and Focus programme was a huge success! We had over 500 young people attend 22 classes across various locations in Bedfordshire and this supports my plans to invest in early intervention programmes to safeguard young people. I want to publicly thank all of our partners that helped to make this happen – Reactive8, Boxing Saves Lives, Ringcraft Boxing and Sendo-Ryu. Due to the success we will be planning more of these next year and we have two interns working in the office planning these as we speak. More here.

Grant Funding opening for next year

The PCC's Grant Fund for 2022-23 will be open from Monday 6th September and is an annual opportunity for support services to bid into. The fund is split into two key areas – Ministry of Justice fund and Community Safety Fund. The fund will be open for applications until Friday 15th October. Full details on what can be applied for will be available on the website and communicated to partners. The OPCC will be fully transparent with the process and all partners will have sight of each fund and be invited to an open session with the Chief Executive to conclude the bidding allocation.

Violence Reduction meetings

Building on the success of our Violence Reduction meetings in Luton, more are being planned for the coming weeks and months across Bedfordshire. We're inviting local residents to a discussion with myself and the Local Authority about serious violence in communities and more importantly, how we can work together to prevent it. There will be more locations added in due course. Book tickets here.

As always, if you have any feedback or suggestions you can email the office here PCC@bedfordshire.pnn.police.uk

Chief Executive's Celebration

By Clare Kelly, Chief Executive of the OPCC

For this month the office and I wanted to thank Community Safety Partnership Manager Sarah Stevens who has not only been instrumental in putting together several bids on behalf of the people of Bedford but has also delivered personally on the now completed Safer Streets programme for Midland Road.

Sarah's leadership commitment and energy has seen real change for our residents and all partners that worked with us in this area complimented both her style and delivery.

Amongst my team I am congratulating Simon Powell Head of Victim Care. Simon has successfully supported Signpost, the service for victims of crime to increase their referral rates to ensure they are delivering at both a high volume and quality for the people of Bedfordshire.

He has also transformed the way we work with our charity – The Bedfordshire Police Partnership Trust. The charity is more aligned than ever to the victim support that is really needed across all of Bedfordshire. Simon has also successfully added areas of support to Signpost such as support for those who have experienced Fraud.

Congratulations to both Sarah and Simon for their commitment and passion to their forward-facing roles.

I remain amazed by the fantastic work organisations like Liam Conroy Ringcraft Boxing do in #Bedfordshire. I dropped by at their #Dunstable gym this evening. About 25 kids (boys and girls) getting first rate coaching, then followed by adults for another session. Average 90 daily! Learned of work in schools as well.

Liam and Ringcraft will be delivering some of our free Summer of Fun boxing sessions in Central Bedfordshire in a few weeks time for young people in the area... See more

There's a social contract between the police and the policed - about policing, which ought to be mutually reinforcing. I want our communities to feel supported in maintaining law and order, and our officers to feel supported in enforcing the law.

It's an honour to be part of this journey with the people of Bedfordshire. Ours is a fantastic county, with fantastic people and a fantastic future. Preventing crime is one of the most powerful ways of realising a brighter future f... See more

This morning, I visited Luton Police Station to join Dept. Chief Constable Trevor Rodenhurst at Team 2 Response 11am briefing. They had the time to ask questions and share views. Really good to see Force Exec. this engaged and involved with frontline teams. Some good action points were taken from this.

Fab. Team doing great work in Bedfordshire.

'Pizza with the PCC' went down well today at Luton Police Station (yes police officers ARE allowed to eat). Thanks to all the officers & staff that joined in and my office for helping to organise. Twenty boxes did the job but the opportunity to talk, over food, was better.

For those Bedfordshire Police officers and staff who weren't able to join us today, we will be holding another soon. Thank you for all your efforts.

This morning, I joined @bedspoliceuk, #Bedford Borough Town centre teams & businesses as part of Ops. Highgate and Primrose, dealing with persistent aggressive begging, shoplifting, ASB etc.

Enforcement and high visibility foot patrols are crucial to tackling these issues, but so are partnership working + signposting to deal with causes of criminality. We need more of this. Great stuff

Very inspiring afternoon at @boxinaveslives in #Luton to see the #SummerOfFun #Boxing session for youngsters funded by Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Bedfordshire across #Bedfordshire. Incredible turnout with three sessions in one day. All participants are first-timers and I was really pleased to see so many girls involved. Fun, fitness and engagement galore
